THE WOMEN 'DRIVERS' OF SAUDI ARABIA

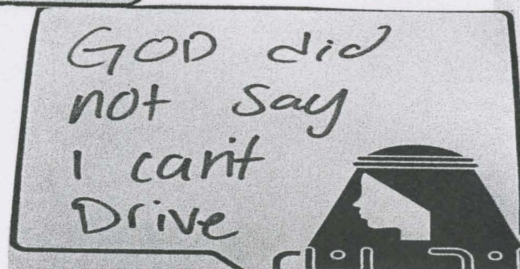

DRIVEN TO FREEDOM

Twenty-one years ago today, forty-seven women staged a remarkable protest against Saudi Arabia's unwritten "law of convention" prohibiting women from driving – the only country in the world to violate this basic human right of freedom of movement. In a display of unimaginable courage these women from Riyadh took hold of the steering wheel and drove around the country's capital in a convoy of fourteen cars. After 30 minutes the religious police came and they were taken to the police department. These women were later suspended or fired from their jobs, confiscated their passports and were banned from travelling abroad. The women endured death threats and social stigma that continues to this day.

To tell a woman everything she may not do is to tell her what she can do. ~Spanish Proverb

I'm tough, I'm ambitious, and I know exactly what I want. If that makes me a bitch, okay. ~Madonna Ciccone careful, say careful, you lie perfect, you want perfect, I want love, I want me, you want

Happy? Not I
Happy? you cant
Cant you see me?
Insecure of myself...

Cant you see yourself?
Free. Uninhibited.
Cant you see us?
BEAUTIFUL. YOU LIE.

THE DEMAND FOR EQUAL RIGHTS IN EVERY LOCATION IN LIFE IS JUST AND FAIR; BUT,
AFTER ALL, THE MOST VITAL
RIGHT IS THE RIGHT TO LOVE AND BE LOVED.
